ACTIVE READ

Complete the first prompt before reading the article. Answer all of the prompts in complete sentences.

1. Predict what you believe will be shared/discussed in this article based on the title only.

2. Identify three things you learned from the reading.

3. Summarize the article in one concise, complete paragraph consisting of five solid sentences.

4. Who would benefit from reading this article? Why?

5. Do you agree or disagree with the concept(s) you read about in this article? Think about how you answered the initial prompts at the beginning of the lesson. How did they compare? Explain your response in one concise, complete paragraph consisting of five sentences.