

British artist covers his mansion in doodles, fulfilling a childhood dream

1. Who is the artist and owner of this home?
2. What did he do to his home?
3. When did most of the work on this project occur?
4. Where is this home located?
5. Why did the owner do this to his home?
6. How much paint and other supplies were used in the completion of this project?
7. Is the artist's nickname appropriate and fitting? Explain.
8. Give examples of both positive and negative feedback he has received.
9. The article uses the terms masterpiece and monstrosity to describe how some view the home. Which camp do you sit in and could you live in a house decorated like this? Explain why or why not.
10. What type of color scheme does this house represent?