Grill Off: The Grilled Cheese Challenge

A new sandwich shop called The Sandwich Factory has just opened up in town and would like to feature grilled cheese sandwiches. Not your ordinary grilled cheese sandwich, but something, new, different and edgy! This sandwich needs to appeal to the taste buds of our young population.

Your challenge is to invent a new grilled cheese sandwich to be featured in this shop and write up a recipe, title, and menu description for this new creation.

Your sandwich must contain

- At least two slices of bread (think beyond ordinary white bread)
- At least two types of cheeses (think beyond American)
- Fillings that include at least two other food groups besides dairy.
- A unique spread (inside and/or out) that gives your sandwich flavor

Explore the Grilled Cheese Academy website (<http://grilledcheeseacademy.com>) as well as others for inspiration and create your recipe, and grocery list from there.

Winning contestants will have their recipe, sandwich description and picture published in the local paper.

Good luck...the challenge is on!
